

EDWARD J. HILFER
Of Counsel

Mr. Hilfer brings a wealth of experience to the table, having spent numerous years representing insurance companies before transitioning to the other side of the litigation process. He has a comprehensive understanding of the intricate workings of the workers' compensation process which allows him to navigate the complexities of these cases with a well-rounded perspective.

Mr. Hilfer is a formidable advocate for individuals seeking fair compensation and justice in their workplace injury claims. His ability to anticipate the strategies and tactics employed by insurance companies makes him a valuable asset to the firm as well as its clientele who have suffered injuries on the job.

Mr. Hilfer's relationship with this esteemed firm enhances his ability to deliver unparalleled legal support and ensures that his clients receive the highest level of service and expertise in their workers' compensation cases.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Administrative Law

Workers' Compensation Law

EDUCATION

Gonzaga University School of Law, Spokane, Washington - J.D. - 1981

Queens College, Flushing, New York

B.A. Major: Accounting

PAST EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS

New York State Insurance Fund, 1981 – 1982

Fine, Finkelstein, Olin & Anderman, 1982 – 1985

Fischer Bros, 1985 - 1992

BAR ADMISSIONS

BAR ADMISSIONS

New York, 1982

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

New York State Workers Compensation Bar, President, 2006 – 2008

Injured Workers' Bar Association, Board of Directors, 2004 - 2008